Church · Changes and Alterations

MEMORIALS FOR CHURCH and CEMETERY

Established in 1857. Our experience of three Generations, and our expert designing force is at the service of any Church, Building Committee or Client desiring work for the Church executed in Carved Wood, Wrought Iron, Bronze, Brass, Sterling Silver; in Mosaic, Stained Glass, Marble and Stone.

Our Designs can show any proposed Changes or Alterations in the Church Interior indicating those parts which can be carried out by Local Labor, and those parts executed at our New York Studios.

Schemes for the Redecoration of the Church Interior and for the entire series of Stained Glass Windows can be prepared in advance so as to be developed from time to time as Gifts or Memorials.

Correspondence Solicited for Appointments for our Representative to call and discuss in place Important Work contemplated, or visits to our Studios in New York.

Presbyterian Ministers' Fund

FOR

LIFE INSURANCE

(Chartered 1759)

It writes policies of insurance on Life, Limited Payment Life, Endowment, Monthly Instalment and Annuity plans, its monthly instalments being payable for at least 20 years and for as much longer as the beneficiary may live.

Its business is written by correspondence directly with the Home Office, thus realizing expense ratios from 1/2 to 1/6 those of other companies.

Its mortality experience is lower than that of any other company, making large gains every year for the benefit of its policy-holders.

Its average net premiums are much below those of other companies.

While other companies will carry their policies a month to permit payment of premiums before lapsing same, the Fund allows a year for payment of premiums before lapsing policies.

While other companies will charge, with few exceptions, 6% for policy loans, the Fund charges but 4%.

The clergy of the Episcopal Church are eligible to the benefits of the Fund, and if they will send their date of birth, statements of different policies will be mailed, with application and explanation, etc. Address:

The Nation-Wide Campaign and The Churchman

The leaders of the Nation-Wide Campaign have made a definite emphasis on the value of the church press as a medium of creating an intelligent interest in the Church.

This came as the result of the centenary campaign of the Methodist Church in which the district that was first to complete its quota was found to be the one which had the highest percentage of subscribers to church papers.

Many communicants are offering themselves for work in the Church. To such workers, we offer a method of service which will have the double value of increasing the educational propaganda which the Nation-Wide leaders believe to be of pressing importance, and at the same time of adding to the financial income of the parish.

THE SUCCESSION OF BISHOPS IN THE AMERICAN CHURCH.

The American Bishops derive their succession through the first four Bishops, Seabury, White, Provoost, and Madison, and these in turn derived their succession from the Scottish and English Episcopate. Bishop Seabury was consecrated on November 14, 1784, by Bishop Kilgour, Bishop of Aberdeen and Primus, by Bishop Petrie, Bishop of Ross and Moray, and by Bishop Skinner, Coadjutor to the Bishop of Aberdeen. Bishop White and Bishop Provoost were both consecrated on the same day (February 4, 1787) by Archbishop Moore, 88th Archbishop of Canterbury, by Archbishop Markham of York, by Bishop Mosa of Bath and Wells, and by Bishop Hinchcliffe of Peterborough. Bishop Madison was consecrated on September 19, 1790, by Archbishop Moore, by Bishop Porteus of London, and by Bishop Thomas of Rochester.

The Scottish Bishops derive their succession through Bishops Sharpe, Fairfoul, Leighton, and Hamilton, who were consecrated on December 15, 1661, by the then Bishops of London, Worcester, Carlisle, and Llandaff.

EXECUTIVE COUNCIL OF THE CHURCH.

By the action of the General Convention of 1919 sweeping changes were made in the administrative machinery of the Church. The Board of Missions, the General Board of Religious Education and the Joint Commission on Social Service, as at present constituted, are done away. A new Canon (Canon 58, of the Presiding Bishop and Council), which becomes effective on January 1, 1920, provides that the functions of these organizations shall be taken over by an Executive Council of twenty-five, composed as follows: sixteen to be elected triennially by the General Convention, of whom four shall be bishops, four presbyters, and eight laymen; and eight members to be elected by the Provincial Synods, each Synod electing one. Until a Presiding Bishop shall have been elected in accordance with the provision of the Constitution a bishop is chosen to serve as president of the Council.

The Bishop and Council shall organize its membership into the following departments and determine the scope of the work of each:

1. A Department of Missions and Church Extension.
2. A Department of Religious Education.
3. A Department of Christian Social Service.
4. A Department of Finance.
5. A Department of Publicity.

Each of these departments shall have power to appoint additional members, not to exceed twelve in number, such members having no seat or vote in the Council.

The new Canon also provides that the Council shall submit to each General Convention for its approval and adoption a budget for all work committed to it. This budget after approval by General Convention is to be sent to each Province and to every diocese and missionary district.

The Council is required to meet with the President at least four times a year and at such other times as he may convene it.

The treasurer of the Domestic and Foreign Missionary Society (which now becomes, virtually, a mere holding corporation) shall be treasurer of the Council and ex officio a member of it. He shall be treasurer of all funds collected and administered by the Council.

The members of the Council as elected by the General Convention of 1919 are as follows:

MEMBERS OF EXECUTIVE COUNCIL.

The Rt. Rev. T. F. Gailor, D.D., President; the Rt. Rev. Wm. C. Brown, D.D., Virginia; the Rt. Rev. Wm. Lawrence, D.D., Massachusetts; the Rt. Rev. E. S. Lines, D.D., Newark; the Rt. Rev. T. I. Reese, D.D., So. Ohio; the Rev. Dr. J. E. Freeman, Minnesota; the Rev. Dr. Alexander Mann, Massachusetts; the Rev. Dr. W. H. Milton, East Carolina; the Rev. Dr. E. M. Stires, New York; Mr. Stephen Baker, New York; Mr. John Stewart Bryan, Virginia; Mr. Samuel Mather, Ohio; Mr. Burton Mansfield, Connecticut; Mr. Frederick C. Morehouse, Milwaukee; Mr. Arthur E. Newbold, Pennsylvania; Mr. Harper Sibley, Western New York; Mr. H. C. Wyckoff, California.

Elected by the Provinces: I—The Rt. Rev. J. DeW. Perry, D.D., Rhode Island. II—Mr. Wm. M. Baldwin, Long Island. III—The Rt. Rev. J. G. Murray, D.D., Maryland. IV—The Rt. Rev. F. F. Reese, D.D., Georgia. V—The Rt. Rev. C. P. Anderson, D.D., Chicago. VI—Mr. James J. Pershing, Colorado. VII—Rev. Z. B. T. Phillips, D.D., St. Louis, Mo. VIII—The Rt. Rev. F. W. Keator, D.D., Olympia, Wash.

Until the Council meets for organization, following the date when the new Canon takes effect, it is impossible to give the personnel of the various departments or the disposition of the work now in the hands of the three separate General Boards.

General Board of Religious Education.

The work of the General Board of Religious Education during the year 1919 is briefly described in the following statements:

1. It has produced the Christian Nurture Series of instruction for the Church Sunday Schools. These are used by 135,000 pupils and teachers. They help the rector to form a programme of education for his parish, in harmony with the program of other parishes. They help the teacher with innumerable suggestions and illustrations. They enable every interested parent to co-operate with the Church in the religious training of children.

2. It has demonstrated that the Church can co-operate with the Public Schools and win the commendation of Public School Superintendents. For four years Miss Vera L. Noyes has taught a day School of Religious Instruction for the Public School children in Christ Church, Gary, Indiana. Two other schools are now being organized at St. Mark's, Toledo, Ohio, and St. Paul's, Grand Rapids, Michigan.

3. It has assisted the missionary work among the Indians by preparing special lessons for religious nurture of primitive peoples, which are being translated into the Niobrara language for use in South Dakota.

4. It has won the Church's attention to recruiting the Ministry. Under its direction, methods of reaching High School boys and presenting the call of the Ministry are in operation in many dioceses.

5. It has, at the request of the General Convention, and with the co-operation of a Joint Commission, formulated a revision of the Canons of Ordination, setting before the Church a new plan for the training of the candidates for the Ministry more in keeping with present day requirements.

6. It has, as directed by the General Convention, made an inquiry into the educational training of all men ordained in the Triennium 1916-1919, concerning their age, residence, early training within or without the church, and their attainments in college and theological seminary.

7. It has made an analysis of the condition of clerical vacancies and salaries in three provinces, on a fixed date, revealing that as long as parishes are undermanned and clergy underpaid, the educational advance of the Church must be uneven and seriously hindered.

8. It has established three "Inquiry Stations" in colleges and universities, in which are Rev. Cyril Harris at Cornell University, Rev. LeRoy S. Burroughs at Iowa State College, Ames, Iowa, and Rev. William B. McDowell, Jr., at Alabama Polytechnic Institute, Auburn, Alabama. Through these "inquiry stations," the Board will study the conditions that surround our college students, and determine the best methods for advancing the Church in our higher institutions.

9. It has assisted in the organization of the National Student Council, which aims to bind together all Church societies in colleges and universities, and to give them a programme of work and worship.

10. It has called upon the Church to recognize and support the three colleges, University of the South, Kenyon College and St. Stephens' College, which alone of many remain organically connected with the Church.

11. It has secured the release of Rev. William G. Thayer, D.D., of St. Mark's School, one of the most effective leaders of Church Boarding Schools, to visit and survey the Schools, and in consultation with other principals report to the Church the financial, educational and religious conditions in our Church Schools. This group will formulate a plan and policy by which these schools may contribute their best to the Church and the Nation.

12. It has developed experts and leaders in the educational work of the Church. Upwards of fifty men and women are now devoting their entire time on salaries as General, Provincial, Diocesan and Parochial Secretaries of Education. By the organization of councils over two hundred persons have been engaged by groups under the direction of the Board in study and experimentation, seeking to ascertain the best methods of Religious Education in the home, the Church Sunday School, the Church Secondary Schools, Colleges, Universities, Theological Seminaries, and in the field of pageantry.

13. It has helped organize Boards of Education in eighty-nine Dioceses and in the Provinces. These are so united through the Central Office of the General Board that the best literature and educational methods discovered at any one point in the Church are made available to the whole Church.

14. It has helped to promote Summer Schools. In 1919 there were 25 schools with an attendance of 3,000 students.

15. It has promoted publicity through its monthly magazine, THE LEADER IN RELIGIOUS EDUCATION, which is sent to the members of Boards of Education throughout the Church. These number over a thousand. It also makes news notes available to the Church and secular press.

16. It has helped proficient men and women to obtain such positions as Educational Secretary, Teacher, etc., and has also responded to innumerable requests for speakers for conferences, meetings, Summer Schools, etc.

17. It has co-operated with other communions and religious organizations, notably: The Educational Committee of the Federal Council of Churches; The Council of Church Boards of Education; The College Y. M. and Y. W. C. A.'s; The Federal Council of Churches; The Sunday School Council; Committee on Armenian and Syrian Relief.

18. It has been incorporated by the Legislature of the State of New York and is now prepared to hold property.

19. It has been able, thanks to the co-operation of Dioceses through apportionments paid, and to the subscriptions of interested individuals, to conduct its work without a deficit.

The National Student Council of the Episcopal Church.

Headquarters, Room 73, 289 Fourth Ave., New York City.

This Council is composed of two representatives of the General Board of Religious Education, the Board of Missions, and the Joint Commission on Social Service, two Bishops, and three representatives of each Province, a student, a professor, and a minister in a college community. The Council aims to unify the Church's student work, to give those engaged in the work some voice in its direction, and to furnish guidance to the Episcopal students in their church college organizations along the lines of a "minimum program" of worship, religious education, church extension, service and meetings. Those who are members are given below. Five of the Provincial Synods have elected their members, the other three not having had meetings.

President (ex officio). Rev. Paul Micou, 289 Fourth Ave., New York City, Secretary Collegiate Department, General Board of Religious Education. Bishops, Rt. Rev. Theodore I. Reese, D.D., Bishop Coadjutor of Southern Ohio; Rev. E. L. Parsons, D.D., Bishop Coadjutor-elect of California. Province of New England, Rev. F. B. Roseboro, Yale University; President Kenneth C. GENERAL INSTITUTIONS.

Church Pension Fund.

General Office: 14 Wall St., New York City.

Established by the General Convention, October 22, 1913; adopted by the Conventions of all the 90 Dioceses and Missionary Districts in 1915 and 1916, chartered by the Legislature of New York, April 3, 1914.

President, Rt. Rev. William Lawrence, D.D., Bishop of Massachusetts.

Treasurer, J. Pierpont Morgan.

Secretary, Monell Sayre, 14 Wall St., New York City.

Trustees (elected by the General Convention): Rt. Rev. William Lawrence, D.D., Rt. Rev. Theodore N. Morrison, D.D., Rt. Rev. Philip M. Rhinelander, D.D., Rt. Rev. Rogers Israel, D.D., Rt. Rev. Theodore I. Reese, D.D., Rev. William T. Manning, D.D., Rev. James H. McIlvaine, D.D., Rev. Edward L. Parsons, D.D., Rev. Ernest M. Stires, D.D., John Stewart Bryan, Samuel Mather, J. Pierpont Morgan, William Fellowes Morgan, Charles A. Peabody, William H. Truesdale, W. A. Winburn, Charlton Yarnell.

Financial Support. An assessment upon each parish and other salary-paying organization in the Church of 7½ per cent upon the salary paid to the clergy (a rectory adding one-sixth to the money salary). The assessment system went into operation on March 1, 1917, when the Initial Reserve contributed by the Church during the preceding year amounted to more than $8,500,000.

Assessments are being paid at the rate of over $600,000 a year, or over 95 per cent of all possible assessments.

The General Convention designs the Church Pension Fund to assure support to all of the clergy when aged and disabled and the families of all deceased clergymen. The pension benefits are:

First. At 68, upon retirement from regular active work, an annuity equal to 1¼ per cent of the average annual salary multiplied by the years of service. Minimum $600. The minimum not promised if ordination took place at 36 or over.

Second. Upon disability at any age, an annuity during its continuance of 40 per cent of the average salary for the previous five years. Minimum $600.

Third. To a widow, one-half of the old age annuity to which the husband would have been entitled, calculating his annuity from the date of marriage only. Minimum $300, if marriage contracted before retirement.

Fourth. To minor orphans, $100 from ages one to seven; $200 between ages seven and fourteen; $300 from age fourteen to majority or end of dependence.

The clergy ordained prior to March 1, 1917, and their families can only receive the minimum pensions given above, and half of the minor orphans' benefits, until the annual assessments, in any individual case, have been paid sufficiently long after March 1, 1917, as to entitle the beneficiary to a larger grant.

Grants, October 1, 1919. Direct Grants of The Church Pension Fund, $144,282.31. Assumed from General Clergy Relief Fund and Diocesan Funds, $184,656.00. Total, $328,938.31.

Church Periodical Club.

(Founded January 10, 1888. Incorporated February 17, 1892.)

Pres., Mrs. Otto Heingke, 420 Qvington Ave., Bay Ridge, N. Y. Executive Sec., Miss Mary F. Thomas, 2 West 47th St., New York City. Treas., Mrs. D. G. Luckett, 44 West 10th St., New York City.

Object: To bring together those who need reading matter and those who have such material and are willing to pass it on. The work in carried on from the central office, 2 West 47th St., New York City, through diocesan and parish officers, to whom application should be made by those who wish to share in the work.

The Church Periodical Club is in touch with over 5,000 recipients, including clergy, lay people and institutions in all parts of the United States and its dependencies, in missions of the American Church in foreign lands, in Canada, and in occasional places in India, Australia, New Guinea, etc. Among these recipients there is a place for all forms of printed matter, books singly or in quantity, music, religious and secular,

Christmas and Easter cards, pictures and games. Above all, there is need for current magazines of all kinds, forwarded regularly and promptly as soon as read. This was the original work of the C. P. C. and still ranks first in the minds of the recipients, not merely for the thing sent, but for the thought that prompts such faithful sending. It is a true act of Christian fellowship, a personal service open to anyone who subscribes for or buys a magazine.

"Hobart College, Geneva, N. Y."

Inaugurated 1822 by members of the Protestant Episcopal Church and other churches "for the instruction and education of youth in the learned languages and liberal arts and sciences"; the permanent charter of 1825 contains no reference to any religious body and forbids any religious tests in the case of trustees, faculty or students. Although the institution has always been independent of the control of any ecclesiastical organization, the Bishop of the Diocese of Western New York is, by amendment to the charter in 1874, a member of the Board of Trustees, and by the endowment of the Chapel and Chaplaincy the Chaplain must be a priest of the Church and nominated by the Bishop in Western New York. In the Chapel the services of the Church are held daily. The college also provides, from its own funds, a large number of scholarships for candidates for Holy Orders, and is also largely helped by generous gifts and contributions of certain individuals and organizations of the Protestant Episcopal Church. The present Bishop of Western New York is Chancellor of the college.

Courses in Arts and Science leading to the degrees of B.A. and B.S. For information address the President, or the Dean.

OTHER ORGANIZATIONS AND SOCIETIES.

MISSIONARY.

American Church Building Fund Commission.

The American Church Building Fund Commission is in the thirty-ninth year of its work. Since January 1, 1919, it has made Gifts amounting to $17,696, Grants $2,100, and Loans $62,700 to forty-nine parishes and missions. In addition to this, it has promised Gifts amounting to $11,450, Grants, $3,850, and Loans $62,000, to forty-four parishes and missions—a total of $159,796 to ninety-three parishes and missions for nine months of its fiscal year. Gifts and Grants have already called for the use of the entire annual income, and the Church will have increased its use of loans from the permanent fund by $120,000. If the average is maintained for the balance of the year a waiting list must be created for Gifts and Grants, and only $100,000 of the permanent fund will remain available for the use of the Church at large in Loans.

The total of this permanent Fund on September 18, 1919, is $664,139.27. From it Loans are made at five per cent on first mortgage security under several forms of repayment, and the income of the fund is given away in Grants, which are loans on first mortgage security but without interest, and in unrestricted Gifts. These forms of assistance cover only actual building operations whether for churches, rectories, or parish houses than for building or the other purposes than for building or the acquisition of property.

The office of the Commission is in the Church Missions House, 281 Fourth Ave., New York City. Communications should be directed to the Corresponding Secretary at that address.

Seamen's Church Institute of America.

A Joint Commission on work among seamen created by the General Convention of 1904, was made a standing commission by the General Convention of 1913, and constituted The Board of the Seamen's Church Institute of America, with power to effect its own organization.

In 1916, at the St. Louis Convention, a national organization was practically completed. Its methods are outlined as follows:

1. To initiate and arouse interest in religious and philanthropic work at every port where such work has not already been established.

2. To support, as may be advisable, such work in ports where local interests and resources fail to meet the need.

3. To develop interest in such ports, to the end that each local agency may become self-supporting as soon as possible.

4. To unite, so far as practicable, the several independent agencies operating in a single port.

5. To coordinate agencies at all ports by establishing common methods, activities, seamen's organizations, means of dealing with undesirables, general standards of conduct, etc.

6. To affiliate all existing church agencies to the end that the aforesaid methods, and such others as may be agreed upon, shall be carried out, due regard being had for the local autonomy of each affiliated agency.

The members of the Joint Commission appointed at the General Convention in 1919 are: The Rt. Rev. William F. Nichols, D.D.; the Rt. Rev. William Lawrence, D.D.; the Rt. Rev. William A. Leonard, D.D.; the Rt. Rev. Charles Sumner Burch, D.D.; the Rt. Rev. Frederick F. Reese, D.D.; the Rt. Rev. Frederick W. Keator, D.D.; Rev. Archibald R. Mansfield, D.D.; the Rev. Romilly F. The Order of St. Anne.

Founded in 1910. Composed of women living under vows of poverty, chastity, and obedience. After a novitiate of from two to three years, vows are made annually for three years; when that period is ended, the vows are made for life.

The Order consists of two divisions: the First and the Second Order. The First Order—some members of which are enclosed—has as its primary object perpetual intercession and the care of children. The aim of the Second Order, the members of which do not wear a conventional religious habit, is an active life in the world while still living by the rule of the Order. Convents of the Order of St. Anne have been established in China and England as well as America.

Each convent of the Order is autonomous, all the Sisters having a vote in the election of the Mother.

For information address The Reverend Mother, O. S. A., St. John's House, Arlington Heights, Massachusetts; or The Reverend Mother, O. S. A., St. Augustine Farm, Foxboro, Massachusetts; or The Reverend Mother, O. S. A., St. Anne's Convent, American Church Mission, Wuchang, China.

"The Sisterhood of the Holy Nativity."

[Founded in 1882, by the Rev. C. Grafton, late Bishop of Fond du Lac.]

This Sisterhood is engaged principally in Parochial and Mission Work. The Mother House and Novitiate are at Fond du Lac, Wis. In Wisconsin the Sisters are working at the Cathedrals of Fond du Lac and Milwaukee, and have a house on the Oneida Reservation, where they established the industry among the Indian women. In the East they have four houses, one in Providence, R. I., where the Sisters work in St. Stephen's parish and at Christ Church; the Church of the Redeemer; one in Portland, Maine, with work at the Cathedral and one in Newport, Rhode Island, with work in St. John's parish, and one in Baltimore, connected with Mt. Calvary. The Sisters have lately opened a house at Long Island, which is open to ladies who may wish to make a day's retreat or desire a rest for a few days or longer. The Sisters have also the parish work at Mary the Virgin, New York, and at Saints, Orange, N. J.

The Sisters visit parishes at the Rectory request, remaining for some time and giving temporary aid in parish work, viz., formation of guilds, gathering the untalented, preparing persons for confirmation, etc. Where Missions are being held, they often go to aid the Missioner.

The ecclesiastical embroidery rooms and the Altar Bread department are at the convent, Fond du Lac, where the Sisters have so a picture department, through which they try to do a missionary work by furnishing devotional cards for the Holy Eucharist and cards for Christmas, Easter, and other occasions, conveying Church teaching. There is a free lending library at the convent, for sending out Church books by mail, with no expense to the borrower except the return postage.

For information, address the Rev. Mother Superior, Convent of the Holy Nativity, Fond du Lac, Wis.

PROPAGANDA.

American Church Union.

The American Church Union is formed to defend and maintain unimpaired the Doctrine, Discipline and Worship of the Church against laxity and indifference within and hindrance and aggression from without. It gives its unreserved assent to the following principles: 1. That the Protestant Episcopal Church is an integral part of the One, Holy, Catholic and Apostolic Church. 2. That the Church's Creeds are to be interpreted and believed as held by the undivided Church. 3. That, as declared in the Preface to the Ordinal, the Ministry of the Church has been from the Apostles' time, threefold; and those only are to execute the functions of this Ministry in this Church who have had Episcopal consecration or ordination. 4. That the Scriptures of the Old and New Testaments are divinely inspired. 5. That the Church's Sacraments derive from Christ vital power to confer grace by the operation of the Holy Ghost. 6. That the Marriage tie is indissoluble, as set forth in the Church's Form of Solemnization of Matrimony. 7. That persons unconfirmed by a Bishop, who are known to be neither ready nor desirous to receive Confirmation, ought not to be admitted to the Holy Communion, nor enrolled as Communicants of the Church.

HISTORICAL NOTES.

In the fall of 1889, the Rev. Lucien Lee Kinsolving and the Rev. James W. Morris, Missionaries of the American Church Missionary Society, commenced the services of the Church in Porto Alegre, the Capital of Rio Grande do Sul, in the United States of Brazil. In 1893 three cities had well sustained services. In 1893 a visitation was made by the Rt. Rev. Dr. Peterkin, of West Virginia. Under him the work was organized. Four deacons were ordained and over one hundred and forty persons confirmed. In 1897 the Rt. Rev. Dr. Stirling, Bishop of the Falkland Islands, made a visitation. At the General Convention of 1898, at its sessions in Washington, a memorial was presented "from the Reformed Church in Brazil" asking for the nomination and consecration of a Bishop under the Provisions of Article 10 of the Constitution. Under an agreement with the representatives of that organization, the House of Bishops consented, October 19, to proceed to an election. On October 20 the Rev. Lucien Lee Kinsolving was elected. He was consecrated in St. Bartholomew's Church, New York City, January 6, 1899. In 1907, by action of the Church in Brazil, memorials were presented to the House of Bishops during the sessions of the General Convention held in the city of Richmond, Virginia, in October, 1907, asking to be received as a Missionary District. The prayer of the memorialists was granted. Dr. Kinsolving resigned as Bishop of Southern Brazil under the agreement made in 1898, on October 10. He was duly elected and confirmed on October 14 as Missionary Bishop of Brazil with the title of Bishop of Southern Brazil.

THE CHURCH IN AFRICA.

MISSIONARY DISTRICT OF LIBERIA.

Population, 1,000,000. Area, 14,360 sq. m.

Bishop-Elect.—The Rev. W. H. Overs, Ph.D.

Standing Committee.—Clerical, the Rev. S. D. Ferguson, Jr., the Rev. W. C. Cummings, the Rev. T. M. Gardiner. Lay, J. J. Neal, R. A. Masoy, S. J. Dossen.

HISTORICAL NOTES.

The earliest known Christian services on the coast of West Africa were held by the Rev. Thomas Thompson, who resigned the charge of Christ Church, Shrewsbury, New Jersey, in 1750, and became Missionary on the Gold Coast, arriving at James Fort, River Gambiar, on January 9, 1752. With him began the Mission Work of the Church of England on that coast. The first agents of the American Colonization Society, who went, in January, 1820, in the brig Elizabeth, under the auspices of the United States Government, to establish a colony of American negroes in Africa, were the Rev. Samuel Bacon, of the Diocese of Pennsylvania, and Mr. John P. Bankson, who served as Catechist. These were the first actual missionaries of the American Church on the West Coast. In 1834, Mr. James Thompson, of Monrovia, was appointed Catechist by the Foreign Committee. In 1836, the Rev. Launcelot B. Miner, and the Rev. Thomas S. Savage, M.D., of Virginia, were appointed by the Foreign Committee. They were followed in 1837 by the Rev. John Payne of Virginia. At the General Convention, during its sessions in the city of New York, in October, 1841, the House of Bishops considered a report from the Board of Missions advocating the election of two Missionary Bishops to serve in foreign countries. One of them was to be for the West Coast of Africa. A favourable report was made by a committee of that House. On Saturday, October 16, the Rev. Dr. John A. Vaughan, of New York City, Secretary of the Foreign Committee of the Board, was nominated. The House of Deputies deemed it "inexpedient" to elect and consecrate any Bishop for foreign lands until the exact status of himself and those ordained by him to the American Church should be defined. At the General Convention, during its sessions in the city of Philadelphia, in October, 1844, a memorial from the Missionaries on the West Coast of Africa was presented, praying for the consecration of a Bishop for the Mission. On October 22 the House of Bishops granted the prayer by nominating the Rev. Dr. Alexander Glennie, Rector of All Saints' Church, Waccaman, South Carolina, "to be a Foreign Missionary Bishop to exercise Episcopal functions at Cape Palmas and parts adjacent on the Western Coast of Africa." Dr. Glennie declined. At the General Convention, during its sessions in Cincinnati, Ohio, in October, 1850, the Rev. Dr. John Payne, of Cape Palmas, West Africa, was nominated, on October 16, by the House of Bishops, and duly elected by the House of Deputies.

During the session of the General Convention held in New York, in October, 1913, the name of the District was changed to Liberia, in accordance with its own request.

First Bishop.—JOHN PAYNE. Born, January 9, 1815. Consecrated, July 11, 1851. Died, October 23, 1874.

Second Bishop.—JOHN GOTTLIEB AUER. Born, November 18, 1832. Consecrated, April 17, 1873. Died, February 16, 1874.

Third Bishop.—CHARLES CLIFTON PENICK. Born in Charlotte Co., Va., December 9, 1843. Consecrated, February 13, 1877. Resigned, October, 1883. Died, April 13, 1914.

Fourth Bishop.—SAMUEL DAVID FERGUSON. Born, January 1, 1842. Consecrated, June 24, 1885. Died, August 2, 1916.

THE CHURCH IN CHINA.

HISTORICAL NOTES.

- The establishment of a Foreign Mission by the Board of Missions, at its meeting in the city of Philadelphia, on May 14, 1834, led to the offer of the Rev. Henry Lockwood of New York to undertake the pioneer work in China. In 1835 he was joined by the Rev. Francis R. Hanson, of Christ Church, Prince George County, Maryland. They sailed from New York for Canton on June 2, arriving October 4, 1835. So fierce and hostile were the people to any "foreign devils, or religion," that they were obliged to make Batavia on the island of Java their Missionary Centre, where they arrived on December 22. They worked faithfully among the Chinese there and opened a school for them, which in a short time had twenty-six boys and two girls. The Rev. Dr. William Jones Boone, of South Carolina, joined them in October, 1837. The opening of several ports by the treaty between China and Great Britain in 1842 made it possible to transfer the Mission to Amoy, where faithful work was done. The House of Bishops, at the General Convention, during its sessions in the city of Philadelphia, in October, 1844, nominated Dr. Boone as Missionary Bishop of China, and he was duly confirmed by the House of Deputies. He was consecrated in St. Peter's Church, Philadelphia, on October 26, 1844, and sailed for China on December 14, reaching Hong Kong on April 24, 1845. As Shanghai was selected by the Foreign Committee to be the centre of the Mission, Bishop Boone sailed from Hong Kong for his new home, which he reached on June 17, 1845.
- The District of Shanghai was divided in October, 1901, by the House of Bishops, at its session in San Francisco, and the District of Hankow was formed.
- The General Convention of 1910 divided the District of Hankow and formed the new district of Wuhu, the name of which was changed to Anking by the General Convention of 1913.
- By joint action taken in 1909 all the dioceses in China of the Anglican Communion, English, American and Canadian, were united into one Holy Catholic Church of China.—"Chung Hua Sheng, Kung Hci."

THE CHURCH IN JAPAN.

HISTORICAL NOTES.

The earliest Christian services in Japan were by members of the Society of Jesus, under St. Francis Xavier, in 1549. After the expulsion in 1637 of Christian missionaries and the massacre of Christians, penal decrees against the Christian Religion were promulgated. When Japan was again opened to the world in 1854 by Commodore Matthew C. Perry, of the U. S. N., it was a stipulation in the treaty that Christianity should be allowed to be taught and Christian churches built. The first missionaries of any Christian body to reach Japan were from the American Church. In 1859 the Rev. John Liggins and the Rev. Channing Moore Williams went to Japan from the China Mission, residing first at Nagasaki. At the General Convention of 1865, held in the city of Philadelphia, the Rev. Channing Moore Williams was, on October 24, nominated by the House of Bishops as Missionary Bishop of China and Japan. He was duly confirmed by the House of Deputies. Dr. Williams was consecrated in St. John's Chapel, New York City, on October 3, 1866. At the General Convention of 1874, held in the city of New York, the jurisdiction was divided into two districts, Shanghai and Yedo. Dr. Williams became Bishop of Yedo, and Dr. Samuel I. J. Schereschewsky was elected Bishop of Shanghai. Dr. Williams resigned his jurisdiction in 1889, and died December 2, 1910. In 1887 the Nippon Sei Kokwai or Holy Church in Japan was organized, to which all the congregation and clergy in the several English and American Dioceses belong.

In 1882 the Board of Missions discussed the question of Episcopal jurisdiction, which seems to have come before the Church in Japan, and much correspondence resulted. In 1887 the Foreign Committee of the Board of Missions commended the efforts of Bishop Williams and others in drafting canons, etc., looking toward the erection of a Japanese Church. In the early part of 1887 a committee which had previously been appointed by the Bishops submitted to a delegate conference, consisting of three from each society, the canons, etc., for their consideration. The several dioceses represented in Japan then adopted a name for the union of the Churches so represented and called that Church Nippon Sei Kokwai,—The Holy Catholic Church of Japan,—and formulated a Book of Common Prayer and other offices, and a common Synod which meets triennially.

After approval by all the Anglican missionaries, the provisional constitution and canons were laid before the Bishops of the American Church and sent to England. The report of the House of Bishops of its Committee on Foreign Missions during the General Convention of 1886, recommended approval of the action of Bishop Williams in conference with the missionaries of the Anglican Communion in establishing the provisional constitution and canons. The next step in the work of organization was taken in 1887, when a Synod composed of the American and English Bishops, a number of foreign clerical missionaries, all the native clergy and delegates, the Japanese laity met at Osaka from February 11th to 14th. The proposed constitution and canons described in the report to the House of Bishops referred to above were adopted with slight modifications, and the name Nippon Sen Kokwai was selected, a general missionary society was formed, and a resolution passed in favor of the organic unity of all Japanese Christians. The Church in Japan now includes the two American Districts of Tokyo and Kyoto and the English Districts of South Tokyo, Kiushiu, Osaka, and Hokkaido.

First Bishop.—CHANNING MOORE WILLIAMS. Born, July 18, 1829. Consecrated, October 3, 1866. Resigned, October, 1889. Died, December 2, 1910.

The confusion resulting from the war has made it impossible to secure reliable data from the European churches. It is expected that their work will be restored to its former basis during the coming year.

The Nation-Wide Campaign and The Churchman

The leaders of the Nation-Wide Campaign have made a definite emphasis on the value of the church press as a medium of creating an intelligent interest in the Church.

This came as the result of the centenary campaign of the Methodist Church in which the district that was first to complete its quota was found to be the one which had the highest percentage of subscribers to church papers.

Many communicants are offering themselves for work in the Church. To such workers, we offer a method of service which will have the double value of increasing the educational propaganda which the Nation-Wide leaders believe to be of pressing importance, and at the same time of adding to the financial income of the parish.

OXFORD BIBLES

THE FIRST OXFORD PRAYER BOOK and the first Oxford Bible were published in 1675. The primitive equipment with its meagre output has grown constantly until to-day it is an institution employing hundreds, with an output of over a million Bibles a year.

THE RELIGION OF THE PRAYER BOOK. By the Rev. J. G. H. BARRY, D.D., the Rev. SELDON P. DELANY, D.D. 12 mo. 275 pages. Second Thousand. Cloth. Price, $1.75

The new book by Dr. Barry and Dr. Delany entitled "The Religion of the Prayer Book," is a serious attempt to examine the various offices and rites, and to ascertain if possible just what kind of a religion the Prayer Book teaches. This is a subject of prime importance to all Churchmen in view of the revision of the Prayer Book that is now under way. It is also a subject that must interest all those who are perplexed by the various pronouncements of bishops and priests on matters of faith. For it cannot be insisted on too strongly that the Book of Common Prayer is for Anglicans the authoritative expression of the mind of the Church.

The Church is Greater Than The Parish

In order to whole-heartedly support the great movements in the Church, it is essential that each communicant be intelligently informed as to their worth and scope.

The Churchman, with its unexcelled news service, its able and timely editorials, and its devotion to the best interests of the Church, should be in every church home.

Ever since its foundation in 1809, at the suggestion of John Henry Hobart, the great Bishop of New York, the New York Bible and Common Prayer Book Society has been the hand-maid of the Church. It has provided for the free distribution of Bibles and Prayer Books. It has distributed broadcast over the land to our Foreign Missions, and to Greece, and to our Sailors and Soldiers wherever they were serving. It has never departed from the belief of its Founders, that the Bible and Prayer Book should go hand in hand.

The Nation-Wide Campaign and The Churchman

The leaders of the Nation-Wide Campaign have made a definite emphasis on the value of the church press as a medium of creating an intelligent interest in the Church.

This came as the result of the centenary campaign of the Methodist Church in which the district that was first to complete its quota was found to be the one which had the highest percentage of subscribers to church papers.

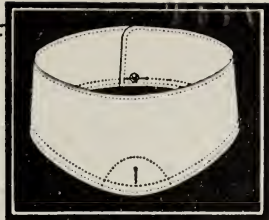

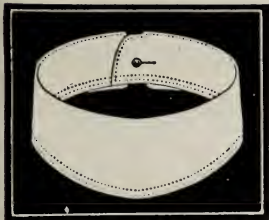

Many communicants are offerings themselves for work in the Church. To such workers, we offer a method of service which will have the double value of increasing the educational propaganda which the Nation-Wide leaders believe to be of pressing importance, and at the same time of adding to the financial income of the parish.

SUPPORTS or aids the work of the Church, for which the Bishop in Jerusalem, by reason of his office and for lack of local resources, is obliged to appeal to the Church. The Fund maintains Missions to Jews and Moslems and English Chaplaincies, and makes Grants-in-Aid to Schools and Hospitals, at Jerusalem, Haifa, Beyrout, Cairo, Port Said, Suez, in Cyprus, and other places.

THE BISHOP IN JERUSALEM is the only Bishop of the Anglican Communion specially appointed to represent it in the Mother City of the Faith and the Bishopric includes within its borders three of the four Ancient Patriarchates of the East—JERUSALEM, ANTIOCH, and ALEXANDRIA.

The Bishop therefore appeals for the general cooperation of all Churchmen in the UNITED STATES OF AMERICA

OXFORD BIBLES

1468-1921

THE OXFORD UNIVERSITY PRESS published its first book in 1468, the first Oxford Bible and Prayer Book being issued in 1675.

The Press is almost self-sustaining, founding its own type, and making its paper at the mills at Wolvercote on the Thames. The skins of 100,000 animals are used every year for the covers of Oxford Bibles alone, and 400,000 sheets of gold are required for gilt lettering, to say nothing of gilt edges, for which a still larger quantity is utilized.

Oxford Bibles and Prayer Books and Hymnals are made in such a great variety of styles that there is one suitable to every purse and purpose. Then, too, there is the assurance that the volume selected is the best obtainable at the price.

Any bookseller will be glad to help you make a selection. A catalogue will be sent to any one upon request to OXFORD UNIVERSITY PRESS, American Branch, 35 West 32nd Street, New York.

Legal Counsel

Frank T. Warburton, Esq.

Ever since its foundation in 1809, at the suggestion of John Henry Hobart, the great Bishop of New York, the New York Bible and Common Prayer Book Society has been the hand-maid of the Church. It has provided for the free distribution of Bibles and Prayer Books. It has distributed broadcast over the land to our Foreign Missions, and to Greece, and to our Sailors and Soldiers wherever they were serving. It has never departed from the belief of its Founders, that the Bible and Prayer Book should go hand in hand.

Contributions urged from Parishes and Individuals.

THIRD THOUSAND NOW READY

The Religion of the Prayer Book

By the REV. J. G. H. BARRY, D.D., the REV. SELDEN P. DELANY, D.D.
12mo. About 274 pages. Third Edition. Cloth.

PRICE, $1.75.

"Some years ago I gave to a young Roman Priest a copy of our Prayer Book. At our next meeting he put to me this query: 'Do you know that your Mass is Catholic?' I replied: 'That was the intention.' This Catholic Intention of our Book of Common Prayer is the central idea of this invaluable book, by two of our Priests who are unusually well equipped to speak on this subject. What gives this volume its great value for the practical Christian is that it shows how the Prayer Book is the living source of a vital religion that will give him strength and guidance for his every-day living in accordance with the Will of God. The book is most charmingly written and holds the interest of the reader from the first word to the last."—F. C. H. W.

Its business is written by correspondence with the Home Office. Its average net premiums are much below those of other companies. It allows a year for payment of all premiums without interest. It charges only 4% for policy loans. It writes all forms of Insurance. The clergy of the Episcopal Church are eligible to its benefits, and if they will send date of birth, statements of different policies will be mailed, with full explanation. Address:

Training School for Nurses

The Protestant Episcopal Hospital, in Philadelphia, has an attractive, well-equipped School Building, furnishing a comfortable home for upward of one hundred pupil nurses. It has attractive reception, recreation and reading rooms, class and lecture rooms, and a roof garden.

Competent instructors in all branches are employed, and the practical work is under careful supervision.

The hospital is general in character, maintains four hundred beds, and affords excellent training in all branches of nursing during the three years' course.

Classes are formed in February, April and September. An illustrated circular will be furnished on application to Miss Katharine Brown, Directress of Nurses.

PREFACE.

To bring together from hundreds of widely scattered sources the many kinds of information which users of the Churchman's Year Book wish to have at their disposal, to make that information accurate and complete, and to present it in such form that it may be readily accessible, is no mean task. Without the generous, pains-taking assistance of a host of Bishops, diocesan secretaries and other Church officials it could not be done. We acknowledge our indebtedness to all these many friends who, at the cost of very considerable labor, have supplied carefully revised reports of their respective organizations. Credit for the accuracy and completeness of the Year Book is due to their patient co-operation.

In a very few instances only, have we found it impossible to obtain accurate revision of diocesan lists and parochial data. We have done our best to supply these deficiencies from other sources so that no injustice may be done to any diocese or missionary district. The editors, of course, accept responsibility for all errors or omissions; we would only suggest that the explanation of these defects may sometimes be found in our inability to secure from the appropriate diocesan officials information that is not elsewhere obtainable.

We believe that the Year Book is as accurate in its details as could be reasonably expected under the Church's inadequate book-keeping methods. The summary of the year's statistics may be assumed to be a fair statement of the condition of the Church. The total number of clergy may be somewhat affected by the fact that frequently the same man will be listed as canonically resident in two, sometimes in three, different dioceses and is so included in the total of the clergy reported by those dioceses. The same may be said of many communicants. But these discrepancies are largely off-set by the very considerable number of both clergy and communicants who in various ways are lost out of the official lists. With but one or two exceptions the figures given in the Year Book's statistical tables are drawn from Convention Journals and must therefore be considered official.

In accordance with the recent policy of the Year Book we have tried to eliminate everything that would encumber the book. Its users, we assume, will not wish to search through pages of matter possessing only casual interest for those items to which they must make frequent reference. It has been our aim to provide, in the most accessible form possible, simply the features which are of every-day importance. The increasing favor with which the Year Book has been received encourages belief in the soundness of this policy.

CHAS. K. GILBERT.

THE TABLES OF LESSONS FOR 1921.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

The Lessons given in the following pages are those prepared under the direction of the Lectionary Commission, and authorized by the General Convention for trial use during the year 1921. They are based upon a thorough revision of the Lectionary of 1916, in the light of suggestions made to the Commission as a result of its trial. These Tables, like those of 1916, cover a period of two years; but the Sunday and week-day Lessons form separate courses, and many lessons have been shortened and otherwise readjusted. As in the 1916 Tables, the morning and evening courses of Lessons are separate.

The First Lessons for the week-day mornings, and for the Sunday evenings follow the outlines of Old Testament history, and on Sundays the Second Lessons are correlated topically with them. The Second Lessons for the Sunday mornings and for the week-day evenings follow the outlines of New Testament history, and on Sundays the First Lessons are selected to lead up to these. The Lessons are also correlated topically to the sequence of the Church Year, the Old Testament story of the redemption of Israel from Egypt being read in its traditional relation at Easter.

Alternative Lessons have been provided for Sundays, as follows:

(1) A short prophetic Lesson for Morning Prayer, correlated topically to the Altar Service for the Day, in compliance with an informal request of the House of Bishops. This Lesson, indicated in the Tables by an asterisk (*), is intended primarily for use when (shortened) Morning Prayer is to be read as an introduction to the Communion Service, but may also be used at other times.

(2) A prophetic or didactic alternative for each Lesson of the Old Testament history.

(3) A Gospel alternative for nearly every Lesson from Acts, Epistles, or Revelation. Week-day alternatives are provided as follows:

(1) For Ember Days and the Eves of Festivals as heretofore. These are indicated in the Tables by †.

(2) A course of Lenten Old Testament Lessons from Job. These are inserted in the column of Evening Lessons, but may be used at Morning Prayer, if preferred.

(3) Parallel courses in Old Testament history, from the 13th week after Trinity, one from Samuel and Kings, the other from Chronicles. Either course may be used at the option of the Minister.

In view of the fact that opinions will often differ as to the proper length and limits of certain Lessons, it should be noted that it is intended that the Minister may abbreviate any lesson in these Tables, at his discretion. Also, on any Sunday, the Minister may, at his discretion, read from the Lessons appointed for any day in the same week, instead of the Lessons appointed for the Sunday. And when the Order for the Holy Communion can not be used on a Sunday or Holy-Day, the Minister may read the Epistle or Gospel for the Day instead of the Second Lesson appointed.

CHANGES IN THE PRAYER BOOK.

For the convenience of those who may wish to avail themselves of them there is given, with the more important changes in the Book of Common Prayer which were finally ratified by the General Convention of 1919. A leaflet containing a full statement of these changes may be secured from the Rev. Lucien M. Robinson, D. D., 901 Clinton street, Philadelphia, Pa. (Price, six cents). New Sentences are provided in Morning and Evening Prayer and for the great festivals.

Except on special days, for which Proper Psalms are provided, instead of reading from the Psalter, as divided for Daily Morning and Evening Prayer, the minister is permitted to read any one or more of the Psalms provided for the Day, or he may use one or more of the Psalms that are given in the Selections, the table of which is found below.

A new Canticle, Benedictus es Domine, is inserted in Morning Prayer and may be used in place of the Te Deum.

Benedictus es Domine.

Blessed art thou, O Lord God of our fathers: praised and exalted above all for ever.
Blessed art thou for the Name of thy Majesty: praised and exalted above all for ever.
Blessed art thou in the temple of thy holiness: praised and exalted above all for ever.
Blessed art thou that beholdest the depths and dwellest between the Cherubim: praised and exalted above all for ever.
Blessed art thou on the glorious throne of thy Kingdom: praised and exalted above all for ever.
Blessed art thou in the firmament of heaven: praised and exalted above all for ever.

On any day when the Holy Communion is immediately to follow, the minister, at his discretion, may, after the Canticle following the First Lesson, pass at once to the Communion Office.

The General Thanksgiving in Morning and Evening Prayer may be said by the congregation with the minister.

A new and briefer Absolution is substituted for the Second Absolution in Evening Prayer, as follows:

The Almighty and merciful God grant you Absolution and Remission of all your sins, due repentance, amendment of life, and the grace and consolation of the Holy Spirit; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Several new Prayers and Thanksgivings are provided as follows:

For Courts of Justice.

Almighty God, who sittest in the throne judging right; we humbly beseech thee to bless the courts of justice and the magistrates in all this land; and give unto them the spirit of wisdom and understanding that they may discern the truth, and impartially administer the law in the fear of thee alone; through him who shall come to be our judge. Thy Son, our Saviour, Jesus Christ. Amen.

In Time of Calamity.

O God, merciful and compassionate, who art ever ready to hear the prayers of those who put their trust in thee; Graciously hearken to us who call upon thee, and grant us thy help in this our need; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

For the Army.

O Lord of Hosts, stretch forth, we pray thee, thine almighty arm to strengthen and protect the soldiers of our country; support them in the day of battle, and in the time of peace keep them safe from all evil; endue them with courage and loyalty; and grant that in all things they may serve without reproach; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

For the Navy

O Eternal Lord God, who alone spreadest out the heavens, and rulest the raging of the sea; Vouchsafe to take into thy almighty and most gracious protection our country's navy, and all who serve therein. Preserve them from the dangers of the sea, and from the violence of the enemy; that they may be a safeguard unto the United States of America, and a security for such as pass on the seas upon their lawful occasions; that the inhabitants of our land may in peace and quietness serve thee our God, to the glory of thy Name; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Memorial Days.

O Almighty God, God of the spirits of all flesh; we give thee thanks for all those who have laid down their lives for home and country; and we commend them to thy fatherly care and protection, beseeching thee that we, with them, may have our portion in the life of the world to come; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

For Religious Education.

Almighty God, our Heavenly Father, who hast committed to thy Holy Church the care and nurture of thy children; Enlighten with thy wisdom those who teach and those who learn, that, rejoicing in the knowledge of thy truth, they may worship thee and serve thee from generation to generation; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

For Children.

O Lord Jesus Christ, who dost embrace children with the arms of thy mercy, and dost make them living members of thy Church; Give them grace, we pray thee, to stand fast in thy faith, to obey thy word, and to abide in thy love; that being made strong by thy Holy Spirit they may resist temptation and overcome evil; and may rejoice in the life that now is, and dwell with thee in the life that is to come; through thy merits. O merciful Saviour, who with the Father and the Holy Ghost livest and reignest one God, world without end. Amen.

THE SUCCESSION OF BISHOPS IN THE AMERICAN CHURCH.

The American Bishops derive their succession through the first four Bishops, Seabury, White, Provoost, and Madison, and these in turn derived their succession from the Scottish and English Episcopate. Bishop Seabury was consecrated on November 14, 1784, by Bishop Kilgour, Bishop of Aberdeen and Primus, by Bishop Petrie, Bishop of Ross and Moray, and by Bishop Skinner, Coadjutor to the Bishop of Aberdeen. Bishop White and Bishop Provoost were both consecrated on the same day (February 4, 1787) by Archbishop Moore, 88th Archbishop of Canterbury, by Archbishop Markham of York, by Bishop Moss of Bath and Wells, and by Bishop Hinchcliffe of Peterborough. Bishop Madison was consecrated on September 19, 1790, by Archbishop Moore, by Bishop Porteus of London, and by Bishop Thomas of Rochester.

The Scottish Bishops derive their succession through Bishops Sharpe, Fairfoul, Leighton, and Hamilton, who were consecrated on December 15, 1661, by the then Bishops of London, Worcester, Carlisle, and Llandaff.

Presiding Bishop and Council.

At the last General Convention held in Detroit, October 1919, a new Canon was adopted, Canon 60, providing for the organization of the Presiding Bishop and Council. It was declared that this Council, among other things, should exercise all the powers of the Domestic and Foreign Missionary Society, and have charge of the unification, development and prosecution of the work of Missions, Church Extension, Religious Education and Christian Social Service.

The Council is composed of twenty-four members; sixteen members to be elected triennially by the General Convention, of whom four shall be Bishops, four presbyters, and eight laymen, and eight members to be elected by the Provincial Synods, each Synod electing one.

Until a Presiding Bishop shall have been elected, in accordance with the provisions of the Constitution, a Bishop is chosen to serve as President of the Council.

In accordance with Canon 59, the Domestic and Foreign Missionary Society retains its corporate existence and continues to receive and hold bequests, trust funds and titles to property of all kinds. The members of the Council act as the Board of Directors of this Society.

Following are the members of the Council, elected by the General Convention:

Porto Rico and Virgin Islands, with 92 foreign missionaries and 142 native missionaries.

The foregoing Divisions exist for the purpose of furthering, in every way possible, the work in the above Dioceses and Missionary Districts, to make the work known as effectively as possible to the Church at large, and to bring to the attention of the Council from time to time such things as require its action.

4. Foreign Born American Division—

The Rev. Thos. Burgess, Secretary.

The Rev. Charles Bridgeman, Assistant Secretary.

The Rev. Wm. C. Emhardt, Field Director.

The Rev. Hugh D. Jones, Ph.D., in charge of Welsh work.

This Division is organized to study the field suggested by its name, and to make the work known to the Church by literature, addresses, conferences, etc.; to organize the Church in such a way that the foreign born Americans may be brought within its influence.

5. Educational Division—

William C. Sturgis, Ph.D., Educational Secretary.

Ernest E. Piper, M.A., Assistant Secretary.

The purpose of the Educational Division is to help people understand, enlist in, and work, pray and give for the Church's Mission. In cooperation with the Educational Secretaries of the Woman's Auxiliary, the Educational Division prepares literature, organizes discussion classes and trains leaders. It also handles plays and pageants, books and pamphlets, the loan library, illustrated lectures, exhibits from the mission field, and gives all forms of information and service.

Department of Religious Education:

Its objective is to co-ordinate and develop the work of Religious Education in all its aspects. Its policy is to discover the best educational work in the Church wherever it may be found and make it available wherever it is needed. This policy is made effective by Provincial Boards of Religious Education and Diocesan Boards or Departments of Religious Education.

The work of the Department is done through Commissions composed of persons expert in particular branches of education. These Commissions investigate and report on conditions and problems in education. These reports form the basis for the recommendations of the Department to the Presiding Bishop and Council.

Right Rev. Thomas F. Gailor, D.D., Chairman, 281 Fourth Ave., New York City.

Mr. Edward Sargent, 289 Fourth Avenue, New York City.

Miss Frances H. Withers, 289 Fourth Avenue, New York City.

Commissions—According to the By-Laws, the Department of Religious Education "may invite persons expert in particular branches of education to serve on commissions, to investigate and report on special conditions and problems in education. Each commission shall exist until its report is acted upon and the commission discharged. The expenses of the commission shall be paid from appropriations made by the Council. The members of any commission shall have seat and voice in Department meetings when their report is considered."

The President of the Council is the Chairman of each Commission. In his absence the Executive Secretary may delegate the Chairmanship to a Secretary of the Department or provide for the election of a Chairman.

The National Student Council of the Episcopal Church.

Headquarters, Room 73, 289 Fourth Ave., New York City.

This Council is composed of representatives of each of the Departments of the Presiding Bishop and Council, two Bishops, and three representatives of each Province, a student, a professor, and a minister in a college community. The Council aims to unify the Church's student work, to give those engaged in the work some voice in its direction, and to furnish guidance to the Episcopal students in their church college organizations along the lines of a "minimum program" of worship, religious education, church extension, service and meetings. Those who are members are given below.

President (ex officio), Rev. Paul Micou, 289 Fourth Ave., New York City, Secretary for College Work, Department of Religious Education. Bishops, Rt. Rev. Theodore I. GENERAL INSTITUTIONS.

Church Pension Fund.

General Office: 14 Wall St., New York City.

Established by the General Convention, October 22, 1913; adopted by the Conventions of all the 90 Dioceses and Missionary Districts in 1915 and 1916, chartered by the Legislature of New York, April 3, 1914.

President, Rt. Rev. William Lawrence, D.D., Bishop of Massachusetts.

Treasurer, I. Pierpont Morgan.

Secretary, Monell Sayre, 14 Wall St., New York City.

Trustees (elected by the General Convention): Rt. Rev. William Lawrence, D.D., Rev. Philip M. Rhinelander, D.D., Rt. Rev. Theodore I. Reese, D.D., Rev. William T. Manning, D.D., Rev. James H. McIlvaine, D.D., Rev. Edward L. Parsons, D.D., Rev. Ernest M. Stires, D.D., John Stewart Bryan, Samuel Mather, J. Pierpont Morgan, William Fellowes Morgan, Charles A. Peabody, William H. Truesdale, W. A. Winburn, Charlton Yarnell.

Financial Support. An assessment upon each parish and other salary-paying organization in the Church of 7½ per cent upon the salary paid to the clergy (a rectory adding one-sixth to the money salary). The assessment system went into operation on March 1, 1917, when the Initial Reserve contributed by the Church during the preceding year amounted to more than $8,500,000.

Assessments are being paid at the rate of over $600,000 a year, or over 95 per cent of all possible assessments.

The General Convention designs the Church Pension Fund to assure support to all of the clergy when aged and disabled and the families of all deceased clergymen. The pension benefits are:

First. At 68, upon retirement from regular active work, an annuity equal to 1½ per cent of the average annual salary multiplied by the years of service. Minimum $600. The minimum not promised if ordination took place at 36 or over.

Second. Upon total and permanent disability at any age, an annuity during its continuance of 40 per cent of the average salary for the previous five years. Minimum $600.

Third. To a widow, one-half of the old age annuity to which the husband would have been entitled, calculating his annuity from the date of marriage only. Minimum $300, if marriage contracted before retirement.

Fourth. To minor orphans, $100 from ages one to seven; $200 between ages seven and fourteen; $300 from age fourteen to majority or end of dependence.

The clergy ordained prior to March 1, 1917, and their families can only receive the minimum pensions given above, and half of the minor orphans' benefits, until the annual assessments, in any individual case, have been paid sufficiently long after March 1, 1917, as to entitle the beneficiary to a larger grant.

Grants, October 1, 1920. Direct Grants of The Church Pension Fund, $188,699.71, assumed from General Clergy Relief Fund and Diocesan Funds, $178,314.28. Total $367,013.73

Church Periodical Club.

(Founded January 10, 1888. Incorporated February 17, 1892.)

Pres., Mrs. Otto Heinigke, 420 Ovington Ave., Bay Ridge, N. Y. Executive Sec., Miss Mary E. Thomas, 2 West 47th St., New York City. Treas., Mrs. D. G. Luckett, 44 West 10th St., New York City.

Object: To bring together those who need reading matter and those who have such material and are willing to pass it on. The work is carried on from the central office, 2 West 47th St., New York City, through diocesan and parish officers, to whom application should be made by those who wish to share in the work.

The Church Periodical Club is in touch with over 5,000 recipients, including clergy, lay people and institutions in all parts of the United States and its dependencies, in missions of the American Church in foreign lands, in Canada, and in occasional places in India, Australia, New Guinea, etc. Among these recipients there is a place for all forms of printed matter, books singly or in quantity, music, religious and secular,

Christmas and Easter cards, pictures and games. Above all, there is need for current magazines of all kinds, forwarded regularly and promptly as soon as read. This was the original work of the C. P. C. and still ranks first in the minds of the recipients, not merely for the thing sent, but for the thought that prompts such faithful sending. It is a true act of Christian fellowship, a personal service open to anyone who subscribes for or buys a magazine.

Guild of St. Barnabas for Nurses.

Chaplain General, the Rt. Rev. Rogers Israel, Bishop of Erie.

The object of the Guild is twofold:

1. Religious. To assist its members in realizing the dignity of their calling and in maintaining a high standard of Christian life and work in connection therewith.

2. Social. To provide for nurses some of the comforts and influences resulting from more intimate intercourse with each other and with associate members.

The Guild has a membership of about 2,194, and 27 branches in the United States.

The entrance fee and the annual dues are each one dollar, to be paid at such time as each Branch shall appoint.

Any information in regard to the Guild will be given by the General Secretary, Mrs. E. Bowman Leaf, 2027 Walnut St., Philadelphia, Pa. Honorary and Advisory Secretary-General, Mrs. Wm. Read Howe, Llewellyn Park, Orange, N. J.

The Church Mission of Help.

The Church Mission of Help endeavors by spiritual help and guidance and by material means to put the wayward girl on her feet, and to assist her to conquer herself and thereby become an asset to the community.

The purpose of the National Council of the Church Mission of Help is to extend the work to all Dioceses and to further and maintain adequate standards of work.

There are at present six Diocesan Societies or Units. The council is composed of two representatives from each Diocese organized to do Church Mission of Help work.

The first Diocesan Society or Unit was organized in New York in 1911; Diocese of Pennsylvania 1916; Diocese of Newark 1917; Diocese of Long Island 1918; Diocese of Maine 1920; Diocese of New Jersey 1920.

The National Officers are: President, Mrs. John M. Glenn, 136 East 19th street, N. Y. C.; 1st Vice Pres., Rev. Gilbert E. Pembler, 244 High street, Germantown, Pa.; 2nd Vice Pres., Mrs. John W. Howell, 211 Ballantine Parkway, Newark, N. J. Treas., Mr. Haley Fiske, 1 Madison Ave., New York City.

The central office of the organization is temporarily, Room 152, 2 East 24th street, New York City.

Churchwomens' League for Patriotic Service.

Founded in April, 1919, to continue the spirit of helpfulness and self-sacrifice called out by the war. Engages through its six committees in social work beneficial to the community. It is non-parochial, and is glad to assist any parish asking its help.

The League in New York is maintaining headquarters for committee meetings, and for hospitalities of various sorts. Early in the year, it was instrumental, through its Americanization Committee, in establishing lectures at Columbia University in work for the foreign born. The League maintains three bureaus for the making of hospital supplies; it has opened Greer House, a residence for young women students and the headquarters of the Greer Club for both young men and girls. Will shortly start a cafeteria for girls in a crowded factory district and also a mens' neighborhood club.

"Hobart College, Geneva, N. Y."

Inaugurated 1822 by members of the Protestant Episcopal Church and other churches "for the instruction and education of youth in the learned languages and liberal arts and sciences"; the permanent charter of 1825 contains no reference to any religious body and forbids any religious tests in the case of trustees, faculty or students. Although the institution has always been independent of the control of any ecclesiastical organization, the Bishop of the Diocese of Western New York is, by amendment to the charter in 1874, a member of the Board of Trustees, and by the endowment of the Chapel and Chaplaincy the Chaplain must be a priest of the Church and nominated by the Bishop in Western New York. In the Chapel the services of the Church are held daily. The college also provides, from its own funds, a large number of scholarships for candidates for Holy Orders, and is also largely helped by generous gifts and contributions of certain individuals and organizations of the Protestant Episcopal Church. The present Bishop of Western New York is Chancellor of the college.

OTHER ORGANIZATIONS AND SOCIETIES.

MISSIONARY.

American Church Building Fund Commission.

The American Church Building Fund Commission is in the fortieth year of its work. In the eight months of this year to September 1, 1920, it has made gifts amounting to $16,925, Grants $3,000, Loans $87,400, to 55 Parishes and Missions. In addition to this it has promised Gifts amounting to $20,200, Grants $4,100, Loans $117,100 to 45 Parishes and Missions,—a total of $248,725 to 100 Parishes and Missions.

The total of the Permanent Fund on September 1, 1920, is $665,554.24. From this Fund Loans are made at 5 per cent. on first mortgage security under several forms of repayment, and the income of the Fund is used, after central expenses are met, for Grants, which are Loans on first mortgage security but without interest, and for unrestricted Gifts. The entire Permanent Fund available for Loans is entirely in the hands of, or is promised to, the Church for the erection or acquisition of churches, rectories and parish houses. Loans are made as funds become available. Gifts and Grants are made up to the limit of the yearly income less expenses. The demand for assistance in this branch of Church work is quite beyond the supply. Much larger service could be rendered to the Church if funds were available through an increase of the Permanent Fund by gifts and legacies.

The office of the Commission is in the Church Missions House, 281 Fourth Avenue, New York City. Communications should be directed to the Corresponding Secretary at that address.

RELIGIOUS ORDERS FOR MEN.

"The Congregation of the Companions of the Holy Savior."

A society of Priests and Candidates for Holy Orders living under a Rule for the strengthening and development of their spiritual and sacerdotal life. Its work is parochial. Retreats for Priests are held during the year. Address, The Master, 1606 Mifflin St., Philadelphia, Pa.

Order of the Holy Cross.

["The Order of the Holy Cross."] Founded in New York 1881; removed to Maryland, 1892; removed to West Park, N. Y., in May, 1904.

A Religious Order for Priests and Laymen. Objects: The cultivation of the spiritual life of its members, the performance of good works, especially the conducting of Missions, Conferences, and Retreats. The Order has charge of St. Andrew's School for mountain boys, near Seawane, Tenn., and of Kent School, Kent, Conn. Communications may be addressed to the Rev. Father Superior, Holy Cross, West Park, Ulster Co., New York.

The Evangelical Catholic Society.

Any baptized man or woman may become a member. Priests (married or single), by making vows which require a completely devoted life, are admitted as "charlains," and constitute an Order within the Society, but no vows of poverty or celibacy are required. Objects: The cultivation of the spiritual life of its members; the maintenance of permanent mission centers, the conduct of parochial missions, retreats, Bible classes, etc. Ordinary members work through local chapters. For information address the Evangelical Catholic Society, P. O. Box 1426, Washington, D. C.

The Society of the Mission Priests of St. John the Evangelist.

[Founded at Cowley, England, 1865; established in this country, 1872; American Province autonomous, 1914.]

The Society has been formed for the cultivation of a life dedicated to God according to the principles of poverty, chastity, and obedience; and shall occupy itself in works missionary and educational both at home and abroad, for the advancement of the Kingdom of Christ, as God in His good providence may seem to call. Lay Brothers may be united with the Mission Priests, in dedication to the Religious Life; and they shall assist as far as they can in the works of the Society.

The Mission Church of St. John the Evangelist, Boston, Mass., is the centre of the Society's work in the United States.

Among external works the Fathers give themselves especially to the preaching of Missions and the conducting of Retreats.

Address the Father Superior, Mission House of St. John the Evangelist, 33 Bowdoin St., Boston, Mass.

The Order of St. Francis.

A small community of laymen as well as priests of the American Church, called of God to dedicate themselves under the "Gospel Rule" of St. Francis of Assisi. The Franciscan vocation is to share in the poverty, simplicity and contemplation of our Lord and His Apostolic followers in working for the redemption of the world. The Order is supported by the labour of its members and by dependence upon the alms of the Faithful, "the Table of the Lord," and gives itself to such good works as the Church assigns, which at present is Mission work. The Little Chronicle is published as a means of communication between the Order and its friends. Address The Order of St. Francis, 214 Pier St., Merrill, Wis.

The Order of St. Anne.

Founded in 1910. Composed of women living under vows of poverty, chastity, and obedience. After a novitiate of from two to three years, vows are made annually for three years; when that period is ended, the vows are made for life.

The Order consists of two divisions: the First and the Second Order. The First Order—some members of which are enclosed—has as its primary object perpetual intercession and the care of children. The aim of the Second Order, the members of which do not wear a conventional religious habit, is an active life in the world while still living by the rule of the Order. Convents of the Order of St. Anne have been established in China and England as well as America.

Each convent of the Order is autonomous, all the Sisters having a vote in the election of the Mother.

For information address The Reverend Mother, O. S. A., St. John's House, Arlington Heights, Massachusetts; or The Reverend Mother, O. S. A., St. Augustine's

Farm, Foxboro, Massachusetts; or The Reverend Mother, O. S. A., St. Anne's Convent, American Church Mission, Wuchang, China.

"The Sisterhood of the Holy Nativity."

[Founded in 1882, by the Rev. C. C. Grafton, late Bishop of Fond du Lac.]

This Sisterhood is engaged principally in Parochial and Mission Work. The Mother House and Novitiate are at Fond du Lac, Wis. In Wisconsin the Sisters are working at the Cathedrals of Fond du Lac and Milwaukee, and have a house on the Oneida Reservation, where they established the lace industry among the Indian women. In the east they have seven houses, one in Providence, R. I., where the Sisters work in St. Stephen's parish and at Christ Church and the Church of the Redeemer; one each in Thornton and Philippsdale; one in Portland, Maine, with work at the Cathedral; one in Newport, Rhode Island, with work in St. John's parish, and one in Baltimore, connected with Mt. Calvary. The Sisters have lately opened a house at Bay Shore, Long Island, which is open to ladies who may wish to make a day's retreat or desire a rest for a few days or longer. The Sisters have also the parish work at St. Mary the Virgin, New York, and at All Saints, Orange, N. J.

The Sisters visit parishes at the Rector's request, remaining for some time and giving temporary aid in parish work, viz., the formation of guilds, gathering the unbaptized, preparing persons for confirmation, etc. Where Missions are being held, they often go to aid the Missioner.

The ecclesiastical embroidery rooms and the Altar Bread department are at the convent, Fond du Lac, where the Sisters have also a picture department, through which they try to do a missionary work by furnishing devotional cards for the Holy Eucharist and cards for Christmas, Easter, and other occasions, conveying Church teaching. There is a free lending library at the convent, for sending out Church books by mail, with no expense to the borrower except the return postage.

For information, address the Rev. Mother Superior, Convent of the Holy Nativity, Fond du Lac, Wis.

The Churchmen's Alliance.

The Churchmen's Alliance is an organization of clergy and laity for the purpose of spreading widely an intelligent understanding of the Church and its teaching, with reference to maintaining all the privileges of the Church for its members unimpaired. The Alliance stands explicitly for the Faith of the undivided Church, the Church's godly discipline as enforcing the law of Christ, and the Eucharist as the chief service on Sundays and Days of Obligation. It recognizes the Seven Sacraments as the appointed Means of Grace. It places before its members the duty of contending earnestly for the Faith, by the spread of sound Church literature, by systematic courses of lectures and sermons, by maintaining Parish Branches everywhere, by witnessing personally, always, and everywhere to the Catholic Religion, and by the example of a life lived in the power of the Sacraments.

7. THE PROVINCE OF THE SOUTH-WEST. Comprising the dioceses and missionary districts within the states of Missouri, Kansas, Arkansas, Oklahoma, Texas and New Mexico.

President of the Synod, the Rt. Rev. Daniel Sylvester Tuttle, D.D., LL.D., D.C.L., Bishop of Missouri and Presiding Bishop; Vice President, the Rt. Rev. F. F. Johnson, D.D., Bishop Coadjutor of Missouri.

Provincial Secretary, the Rev. A. W. S. Garden, Box 318, San Antonio, Texas; Secretary of the Synod, the Rev. I. M. Pettit, Bay City, Texas; Treasurer, Mr. Charles L. Johnson, Waco, Texas.

A new constitution and canons bind the dioceses and missionary districts into a strong confederation, with president, vice-president, secretary, treasurer, and council. The last is made up of one bishop from each diocese and district and five delegates elected by the synod, two of whom are clerical and three lay. This council, required to meet at least twice a year and at other times on call of the president, has all the powers of the synod, subject to the canons and previous action of the latter. Under the council there are to be boards of religious education, social service, and missions. The council has power to levy assessments on the dioceses and to originate work affecting the whole province. The following were elected members of the council: The Rev. W. P. Witcal, the Rev. L. R. Richards, Messrs. R. C. Howard of Kansas City, T. O. Dix of St. Louis, and Fred Struble of McAlester, Okla.

Court of Review: The Rt. Rev. G. H. Kinsolving, D.D., Bishop of Texas; the Rev. H. V. Hyde, West Missouri; the Rev. Charles Klingman, Dallas; the Rev. W. B. Stevens, Ph.D., West Texas; the Hon. L. Bradford Prince, New Mexico; Mr. Charles Blood Smith, Kansas.

8. THE PROVINCE OF THE PACIFIC. Comprising the dioceses and missionary districts within the states of Idaho, Utah, Oregon, Nevada, California, Arizona, and Washington, the territories of Alaska and Hawaii, and the missionary district of the Philippines.

President of the Synod, the Rt. Rev. W. F. Nichols, D.D., Bishop of California; Secretary of the Synod, the Rev. Alfred Lockwood, Pendleton, Oregon. Treasurer of the Province, Mr. C. E. C. Hodgson of Los Angeles.

The Province of the Pacific has just held its Third Annual Synod in the City of Seattle. In conforming its organization to the legislation relating to Synods adopted at the last General Convention it has drawn away, for the present, at least, with its Boards of Missions, Religious Education and Social Service. It has organized a President and Council consisting of the President of the Synod and a Council of Nine—three Bishops, three Presbyters and three Laymen elected for a term of three years. The personnel of this Council is as follows:

The Rt. Rev. William F. Nichols, D.D., California, President of the Synod; the Rt. Rev. Herman Page, D.D., Bishop of Spokane; the Rt. Rev. Frederick W. Keator, D.D., Bishop of Olympia; the Rt. Rev. Arthur W. Moulton, D.D., Bishop of Utah; the Rev. George F. We'd of the Diocese of Los Angeles; the Rev. Thomas Jenkins of the Diocese of Oregon; the Rev. Alfred Lockwood of the District of Eastern Oregon; Mr. N. B. Coffman of the Diocese of Olympia; Mr. L. E. Montague of the Diocese of California; Mr. R. M. Davidson of the District of Idaho.

The Bishop of Spokane was elected Vice President of the Council and the Rev. Alfred Lockwood, Secretary. For administrative purposes only the President and Council have been divided into two groups, the Northern and the Southern. The former includes the Dioceses and Districts embraced in the States of Washington, Oregon, Idaho and Utah together with Alaska. The latter includes the Dioceses and Districts embraced within the States of Nevada, California and Arizona together with the Philippine Islands and Honolulu. These groups will meet with representative Laymen and Laywomen of all the Dioceses and Districts embraced in each section in an endeavor to learn first hand the needs and necessities of every part of the field and then will try and answer the question as to how we can make the Synod function more effectively in every constituent part of this great Province. We are trying to develop a Provincial Consciousness and further organization will depend upon the way we can best accomplish this end.

Other Provincial Officers that we have follows:

Provincial Representative on the Bishop and Council: The Rt. Rev. Frederick W. Keator, D.D., Bishop of Olympia.

Provincial Court of Review: The Rt. Rev. Louis C. Sanford, D.D., Bishop of San

Joaquin; the Very Rev. William C. McCormack, D.D., of the Diocese of Los Angeles; the Rev. William S. Short of the Diocese of Sacramento; the Rev. Charles S. Mook of the District of Nevada; Mr. J. P. Lan-horne of the Diocese of California; the Hon. George S. Brown of the District of Nevada; Judge Charles Claypool of the Diocese of Olympia.

Provincial Board of Examining Chaplains: The Rt. Rev. Edward L. Parsons, D.D., Bishop Coadjutor of California; the Rt. Rev. Walter T. Summer, D.D., Bishop of Oregon; the Rev. H. H. Powell, D.D., of the Diocese of California; the Rev. H. H. Gowen, D.D., of the Diocese of Olympia; the Very Rev. G. R. E. MacDonald of the District of San Joaquin.
